

Kim Ganga-Raju

A King's College Graduate, Kim worked in general practice and special care. Her passion has always been on patient communication and ethical care. She has worked both clinically and in a management capacity. Kim started working as a Clinical Advisor for ClearCorrect in March 2022. She enjoys problem solving, mentorship and has a keen interest in personal and professional development and has worked towards a post graduate diploma in Clinical Education